

VCS Bargaining Report #13
August 2, 2011

It's Groundhog Day at VCS Bargaining. Once again the Union sat through another session of Company Rejections today. Every proposal, except one, that the Union has made has been REJECTED by VCS. Your Bargaining Team has made counterproposals for the majority of the ones that the Company REJECTED in an effort to improve our current Agreement. I know this will come as a surprise but the only thing we have heard from the Company concerning our counterproposals is REJECTED. It is obvious that the Company is not interested in bargaining but only interested in take backs. It is clear that the Union is the only entity sitting at the table that is interested in reaching a fair and equitable Agreement. We need everyone to let the Company know where they can place their retrogressive proposals and each of us needs to let the Company know that ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.

We need to keep the pressure on the Company and let them know that we will not go back. We will not stop until we get a fair contract and with your help we will accomplish that together. We must turn up the heat on the Company between now and August 6th so they clearly understand that whatever it takes WE WILL PREVAIL.

Our next Rejection session with the Company is scheduled for 11:00am on August 3rd.

Make sure the Groundhogs begin to work!!

It's all about good Union Jobs!!!
